

COVID-19 Emergency Response: Help Spread the Word with Social Media

You may be wondering: "How can I help when I need to stay home?" Social media is a great way to stay connected and spread messages of hope and kindness. If you have a social media account, check out some ideas for how you can help.

Follow us: @shebctyfoodbank

FACEBOOK

Temporary Profile Frame

Use our profile frame with your profile picture to show your support for Sheboygan County Food Bank and help remind your friends and family that we are dedicated to our community, especially during times of uncertainty. Login to your Facebook account and click here to include our profile frame for a specified amount of time.

Fundraiser

Launch a Facebook Fundraiser. It's an easy way to ask friends and family to donate in honor of your birthday, or simply to raise money for Sheboygan County Food Bank during this time. Click here to launch your own Facebook fundraiser. Sheboygan County Food bank receives 100% of the money raised.

INSTAGRAM

Donation Sticker

Add a post of ours to your story and add on the Donation sticker. Sheboygan County Food bank receives 100% of the money raised.

TWITTER AND FACEBOOK

Topic	Background of Topic	Example Post	Example Tweet
Sheboygan County Hunger Relief Food Fund	SCFB launched the Sheboygan County Hunger Relief Food Fund. Donations go specifically to purchase healthy emergency food during the current health crisis. Instead of donating food, it's easiest, safest way to help.	Supporting our neighbors in need is important now more than ever. In response to COVID-19 in our community, Sheboygan County Food Bank recently launched their Sheboygan County Hunger Relief Food Fund. Donations to this fund go specifically to purchase healthy emergency food to cover critical food shortfalls and meet the increased demand during the current health crisis. If you would like to contribute to this fund, any amount is graciously accepted and it's the easiest, safest way to help. Learn more about donating now: http://bit.ly/2lzFSC8	Supporting our neighbors in need is important now more than ever. In response to COVID-19 in our community, Sheboygan County Food Bank recently launched their #SheboyganCountyHungerReliefFoodFund to purchase healthy emergency food. Donate now: http://bit.ly/2lzFSC8
Volunteering	SCFB relies on volunteers to continue to run operations smoothly with the increased demand through our partner food pantries and other partner agencies.	Sheboygan County Food Bank is dedicated to safely delivering healthy emergency food throughout the community and is in high need of volunteers during this time. Volunteers help build prepackaged emergency food boxes. If you are willing to help, view and register for volunteer shifts here: https://bit.ly/3boSVCI	Sheboygan County Food Bank is dedicated to safely delivering healthy emergency food throughout the community and is in high need of volunteers during this time. Volunteers help build prepackaged emergency food boxes. Register for volunteer shifts here: https://bit.ly/3boSVCI
Emergency Food Help	SCFB has built a web page with updated emergency food resources, tools, and FAQs for those in need of emergency food.	Sheboygan County Food Bank is dedicated to safely delivering healthy emergency food to its partners throughout Sheboygan County. If you, or someone you know, needs emergency food, please check out their website for the latest emergency food resources and other available help in the community: http://bit.ly/2vv9fly	Sheboygan County Food Bank is dedicated to safely delivering healthy emergency food to its partners throughout Sheboygan County. If you, or someone you know, needs emergency food, please check out their website for the latest emergency food resources: http://bit.ly/2vv9fly